BULLDOG

Fran,
WHAT A YEAR!!! All I can say that it was Tom Terific! I'm really glad that I got to know you better this year and all the really great and fun times we've shared!! But next year is gonna be even better! Please stay as sweet and little as you are! Stay good! Good Luck in whatever you do and who ever you choose

Love,
Bridg
"72"

Fran,

There really doesn't seem to be too much room to say exactly what I feel. Really, all I really want to say is that I'm glad that I've been able to really be a good friend of yours. You're so wonderful in sooo... many ways! Never change the way you are. We've been through good and bad, and I hope the good will always stand out in whatever happens.' Good luck with that special someone, and I wish you all the happiness your heart can hold. May the big Cheese bless and keep you

Bridg

P.S. You're a great friend (for me) too!

Thanks and praise to the girls' pep club for their tireless support of our teams.

Mr. Barbick shows two of his guests, Sisters M. Magdalene and M. Louise, the view from Mr. Vernon Club house sun deck.

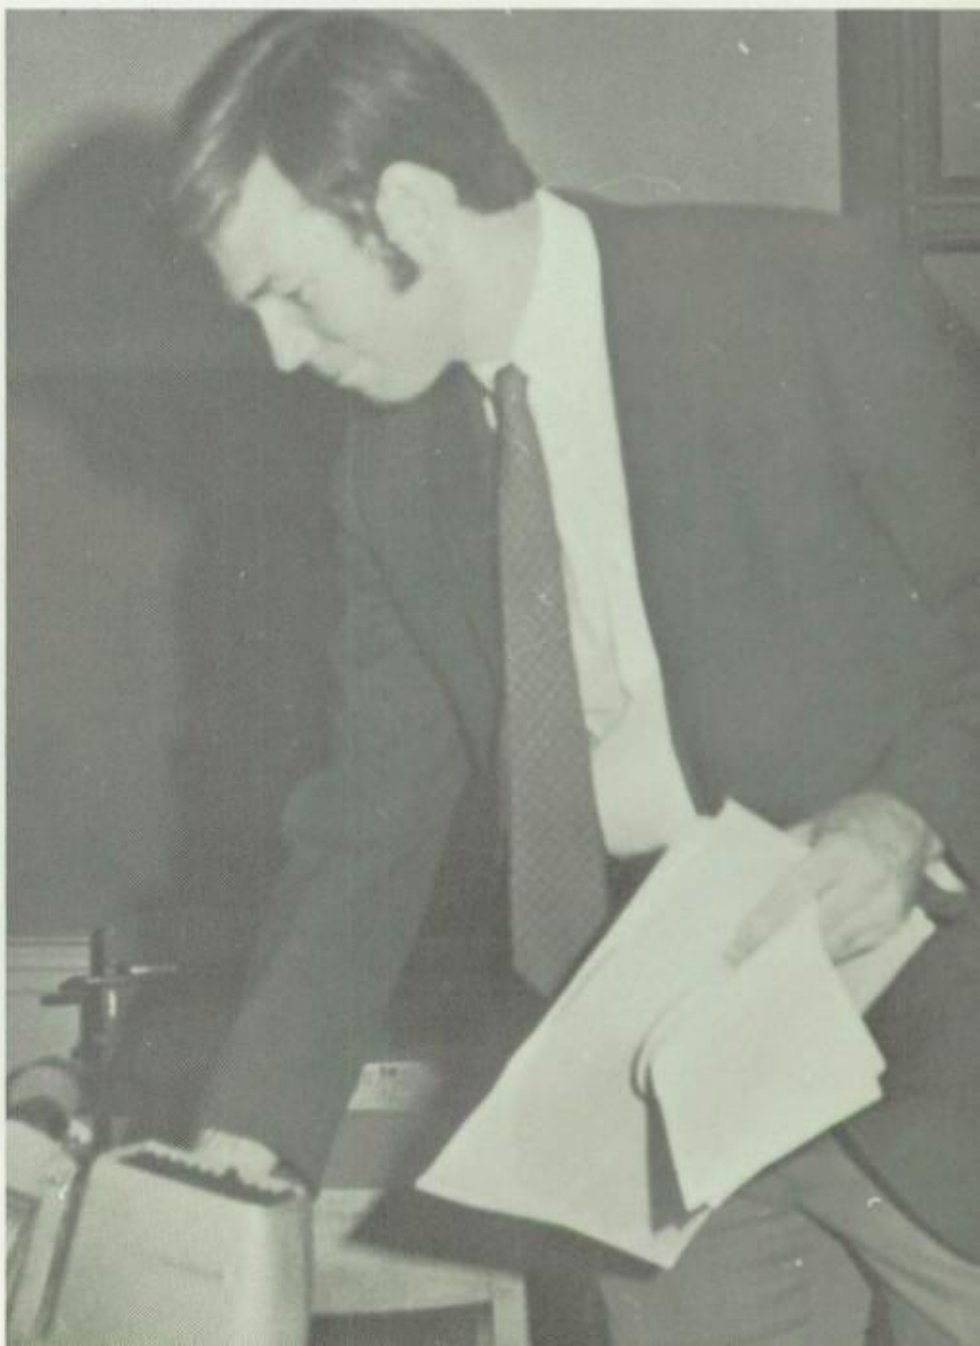
ADMINISTRATION

The principal, Mr. Barbick and his secretary, Mrs. O'Hayre, often work over time to keep the school going.

Below: Mr. Carter, the second assistant principal, takes over the duties of activities co-ordinator.

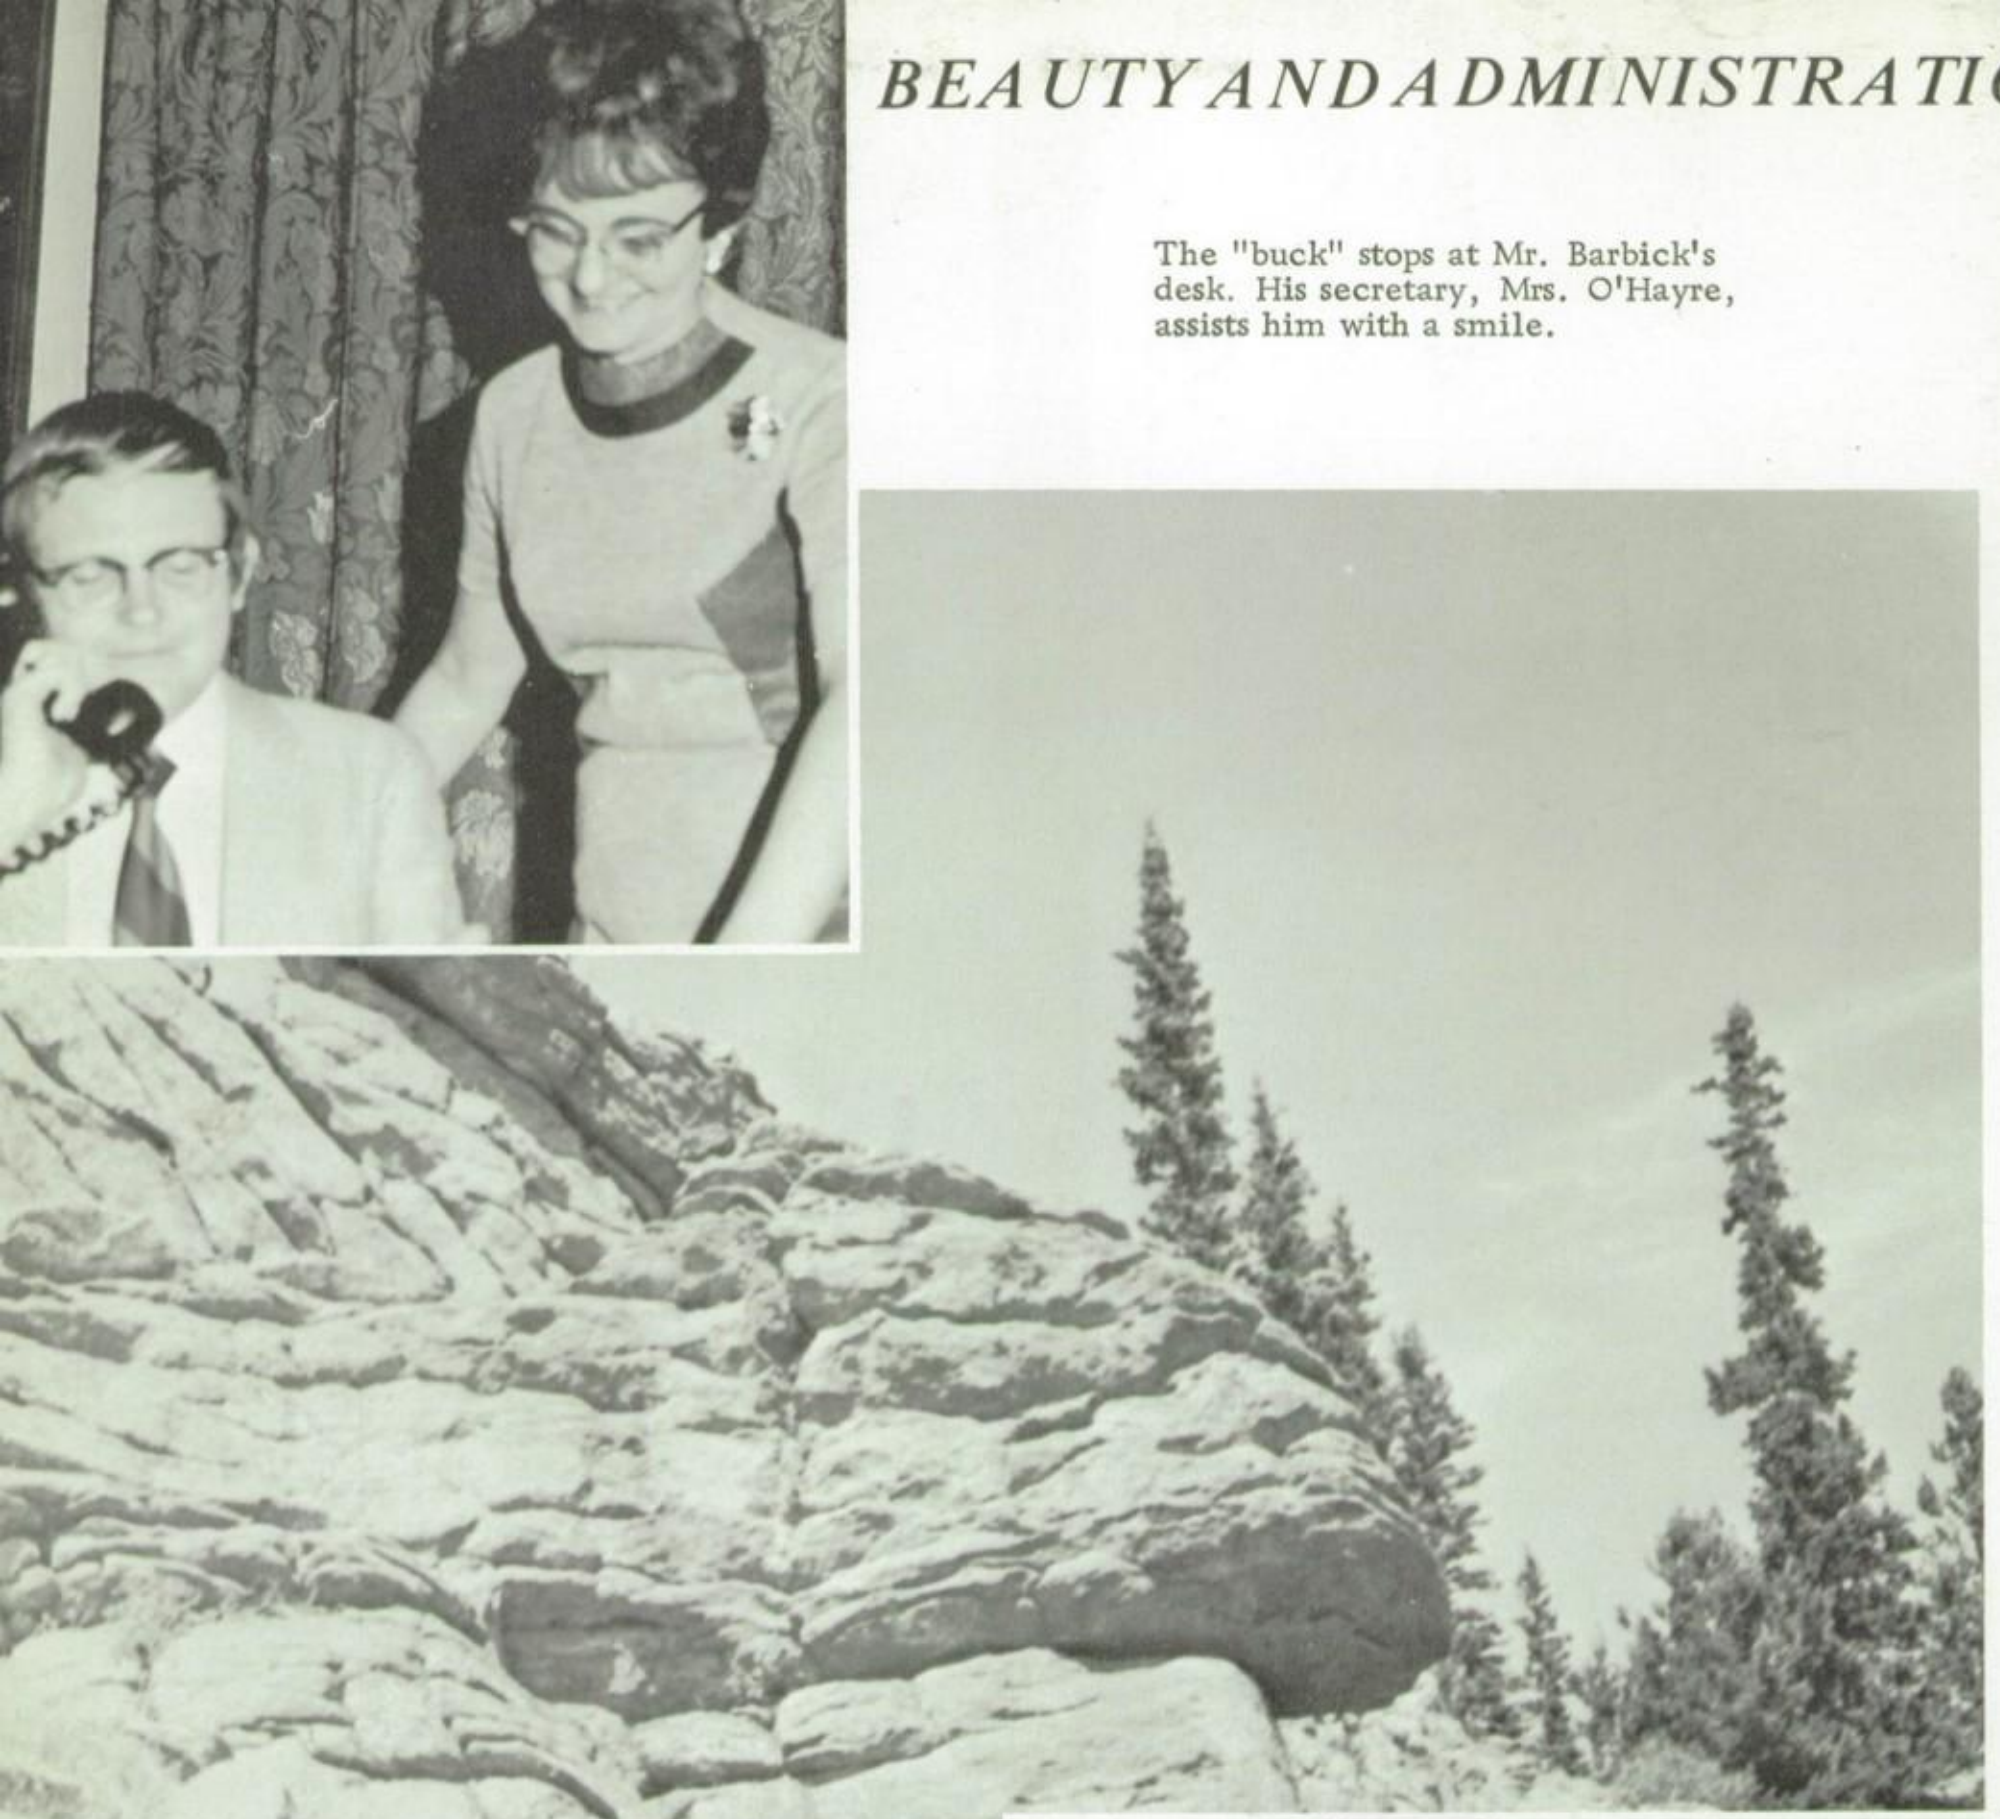
The new registrar, Mrs. Brown is ready.

Mr. Cortese finds a moment to pause from his duties of teacher, second assistant principal, coach and disciplinarian.



BEAUTY AND ADMINISTRATION

The "buck" stops at Mr. Barbick's desk. His secretary, Mrs. O'Hayre, assists him with a smile.



Mrs. Peterson, chairman of the business Department, shares a moment with two co-workers.

BUSINESS

Sr. M. Louise keeps her typing classes moving forward.

Now to get this done before the buzzer sounds.

As Mr. Cortese teaches general business, does he eye every boy as a prospective bulldog on the football team?

Coach Cortese, no doubt, hopes every bulldog will remember the lesson in the poem, "Don't Quit."

Don't Quit

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit—
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow—
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,—
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD

Cross country is new at St. Joe's this year. The rookies are trained to run from ten to twelve miles daily in preparation for their Metro-League meet. At the meet the course is two miles long.

The boys participated in nine meets prior to the Metro League contest. Terry Torres ran the two-mile course in 11 minutes and 17 seconds.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Mr. Carter teaches government to some mighty seniors.

Well, why not enjoy it!

Sister Maryln teaches world history and English. She heads the Social Studies Department. Map study can be confusing.

Sister Diane biology and trigonometry.

Yes, I could use a little help with this one.

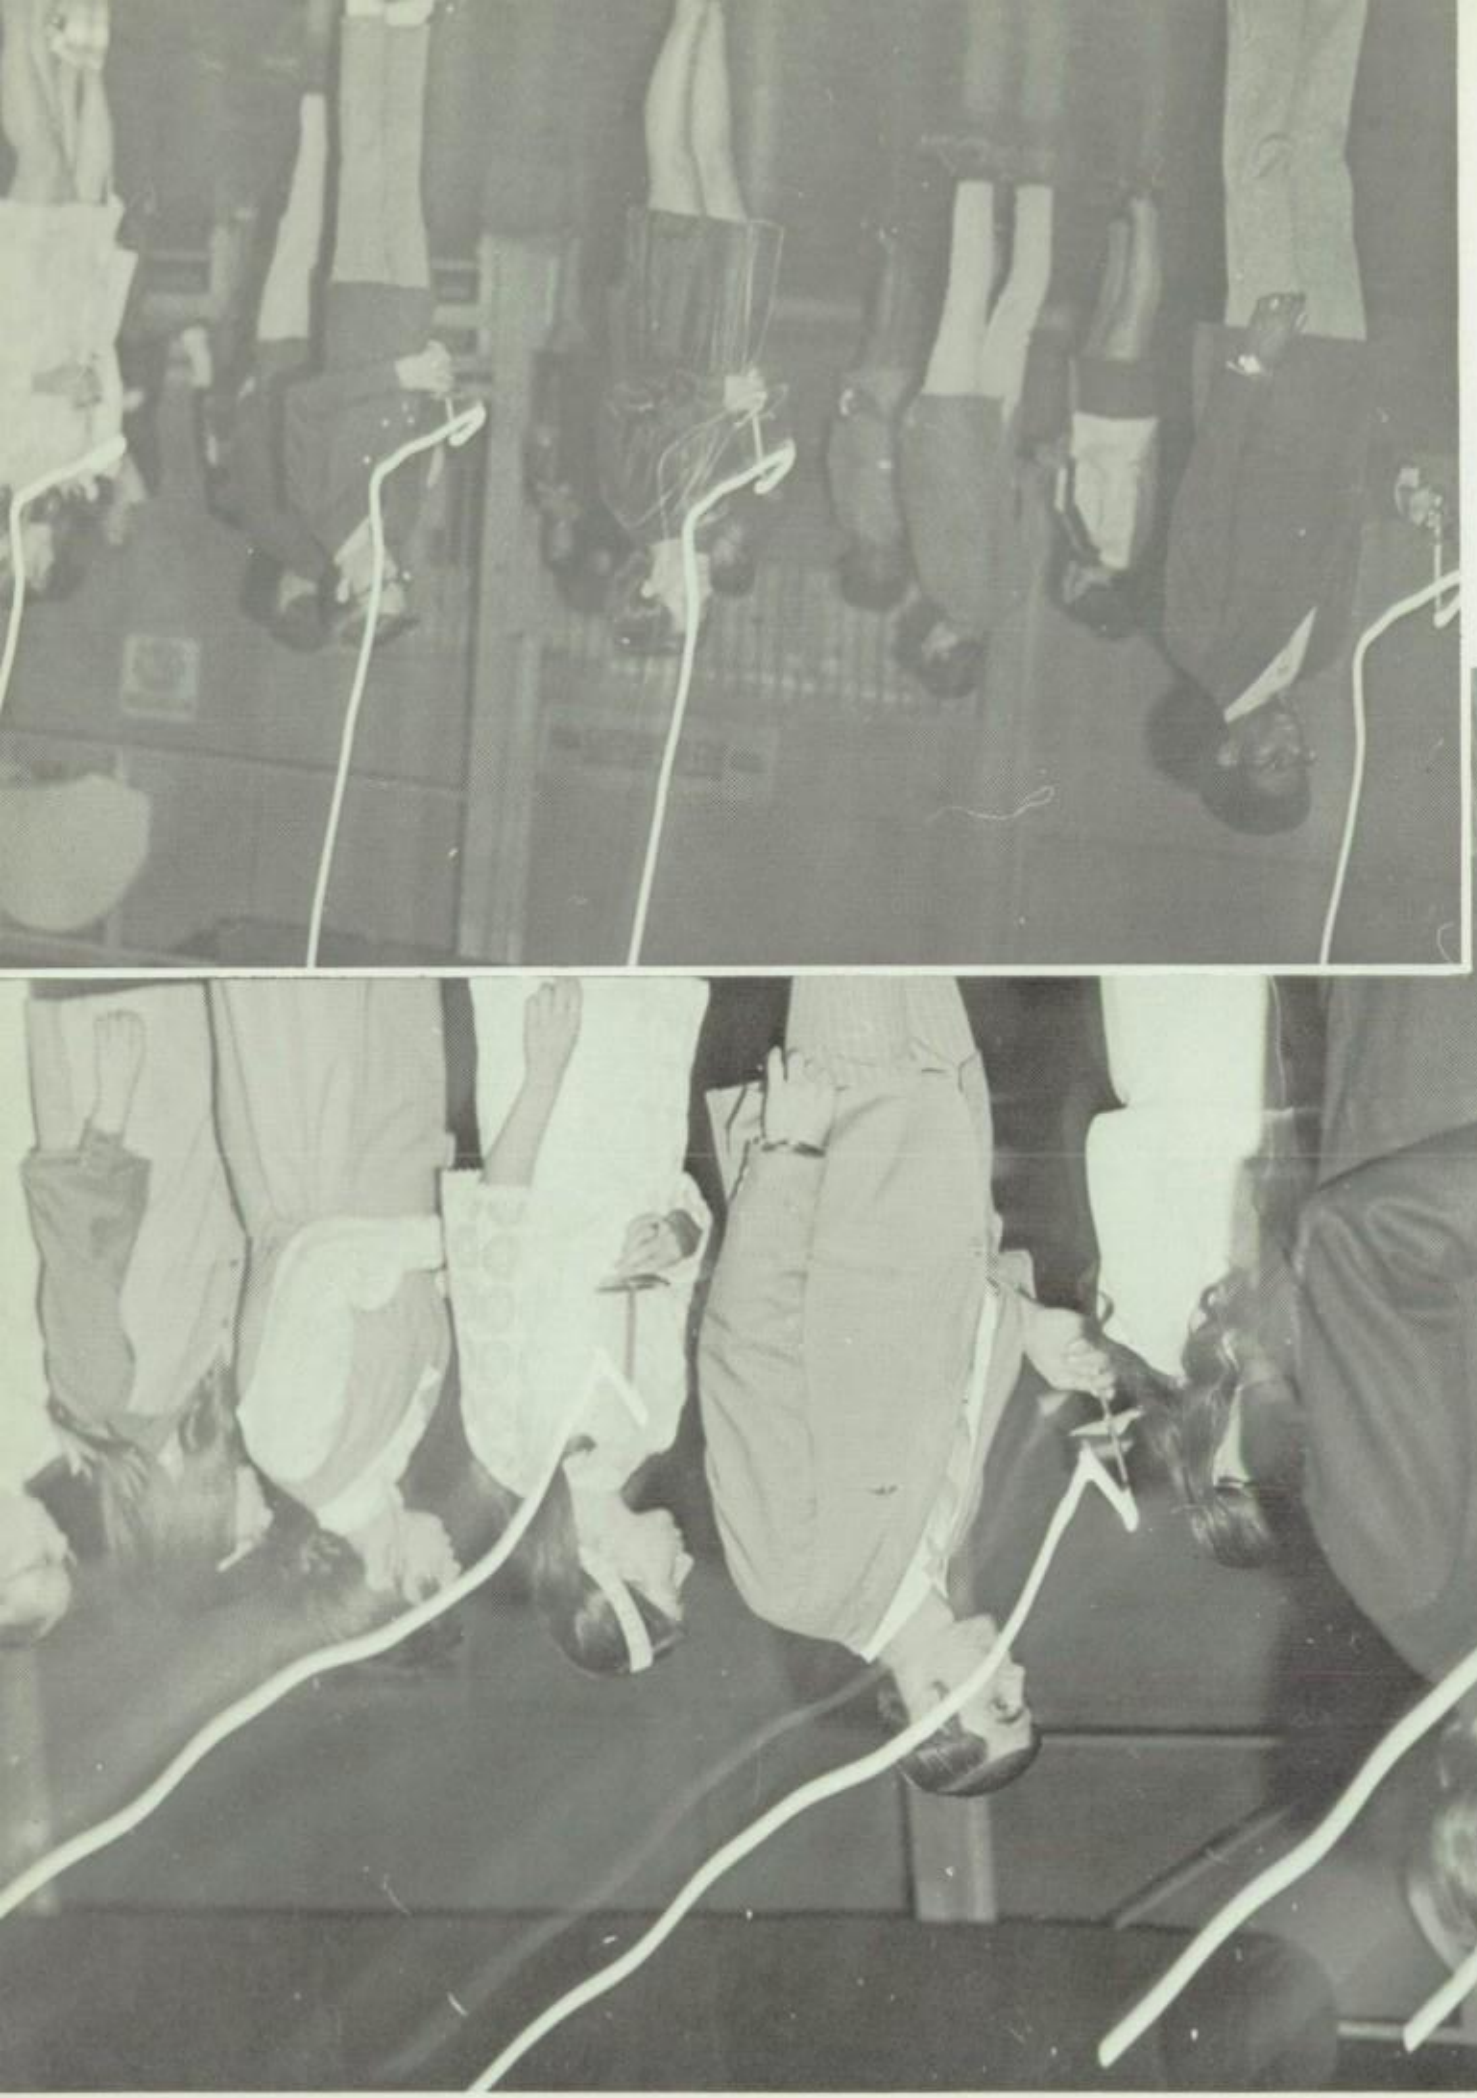
Two frosh study fundamentals.

FRESHMEN LEARN HOW TO USE THE LIBRARY

Mrs. Crisman not only helps the Freshmen English class how to search and find answers but also points out other features in the library. Below she explains an Egyptian display.

THE LIVING ROSARY TO HONOR MARY

Seniors sing, process and pray while the rays of light from their candles entwines them.



Like golden beams of prayer, the rays of light flickered and reached upward.

Mr. Barbick and Father Stewart spoke of the need of prayer in our day.

Mrs. Velasquez, PTA president, wonders, if she forgot anything.

Yes, you cute guy, I'll bring you some extra cookies.

After their aperitifs, Mr. Barbick's guests await the call to dinner at the Mt. Vernon.

Pondering questions during open space religion.

Theology professors try to evaluate the new approach.

Juniors contribute in religion class.

This is Rest and Peace

To step out of self-life into Christ-life,
To let Him lay cooling, soothing, healing hands upon your soul.
To realize that you are only a little child with a
Father's gentle bidding to heed and fulfill.

To lay busy plans confidently in His hands, as the child brings its broken toys to its mother's knee.
To serve Him by waiting and praising Him.
To learn to follow him and love his Honor more than your own . . . this is consecration, this is Peace.

To Fran

Well Fran this is a pretty good year for, even though I had (and still do have problems) But I guess its all my fault. If I wasn't so stupid. But now things will change and I have to change along with them. But I think everyone is entitled to one mistake and I made enough for the ~~last~~ first year. All I can say is I hope you never ever have the problems that I did and you will never be hurt. Your one of my best friends and I hope it will always be that way forever. And not let anyone ~~to~~ break our friendship up. And Frances I want to tell you that I'm sorry in any way that I have made you hate me, or want to kill me, or just not have me as a friend. I'm sorry and I hope I will never have to say it again to anyone as long as I live. Help me keep it that way. I wish you the Best of Luck in the future and in everything you do. Your so little like me only your a prettier and nicer and sweeter and cleaner and everything else like that. You even have the Best friends more than I'll ever have but as long as I have you and Hilda as my friends and I don't care about any thing or anybody else, yes I do ____. I hope the Wild Bunch and will always stay together and never ever break up and Mamaine Jus will always be our Mommie and Mike will always be our Daddy and You and Me will always be best sisters, forever and ever. Please Fran pray for me and help me. And I'll do the same for you K. K. One of these days all of the Wild Bunch's wishes will come true. And we will all be happy together.

Well Rita I guess I better leave you alone for awhile. God Bless and keep you safe. Polly Patty and Fran. Like "Hil" said Good Luck with all of your boyfriends. See Ya Latter.
